Overview of Training

This conference will provide a variety of educational opportunities for those involved in designing, inspecting and installing subsurface wastewater systems. This one-day conference will include classroom sessions and hands on training in the field. Attendees should come prepared with the equipment used for their everyday work, including tapes, pop-levels and Munsell charts, etc. Attendees will also have the opportunity to view vendor displays and network with industry professionals. This conference is eligible for SPO credits. MRWA will catalog and archive all attendee credits and certificates. MRWA will also coordinate credit units with the respective state agencies.

On-site education includes the following topics and much more:

- ◆ 9-inch Rule Review
- ◆ Texture/Munsell coloring
- ◆ "Preparing for a site visit"
- ◆ Assessing soils in hand dug pits
- ◆ Accurate use of a hand level
- ◆ System layout/triangulation
- ◆ LPI classroom instruction
- ◆ Installers "Skills Tune Up"
- ◆ On-site subsurface systems

LUNCH INCLUDED

* Dress appropriately for outdoor training sessions.
